Steps to apply for a visa online

1. If you are applying for the first time, you need to visit the visa center website (https://bio.visaforchina.cn) and register for an account with your email address.

1):See Q&A for details

2. Log in to the Visa Center website with your account.

3. Start filling out the online application form and uploading application materials online.

4. After confirmation, submit the visa application online.

5. The visa application will enter the review stage after successful submission. You need to check the emails<sup>2</sup> from the visa center regularly to determine the next application step:

(1)When you receive the "Approved" email, it means that you have passed the online review. You need to download and print the "Visa Application Certificate." ③ Prepare the "Visa Application Certificate" and the following required documents, and then go to the visa center to formally submit your visa application.

- a) Original passport;
- b) Other supporting materials required in the email notification.

(2)When you receive the "Rejected and to be modified" email, you need to log in to the visa center website, check your visa application (4), modify the application form or application materials online according to the email requirements, and then resubmit the visa application online.

(3)When you receive the "Supplementary documents to be provided" email, you need to log in to the visa application center website, check your visa application, supplement the required documents online according to the email requirements, and then resubmit your visa application online.

(4)When you receive the "Interview" email, you need to log in to the visa center website, check your visa application, make an appointment for the interview time according to the email requirements, and then attend the online interview on time.
