Note:

(1) The visa fee is collected by the Visa Center on behalf of the Chinese Embassy. The consular officer will determine whether to issue a visa, as well as its validity period, duration of stay and number of entries, based on the applicant's individual circumstances. The final decision is subject to the approval of the embassy.

(2) The application service fee is charged by the Visa Center. Regardless of the visa approval result, the service fee is non-refundable.

(3) The total amount payable by the applicant = Visa Fee + Application Service fee (non-postal application)

(4) The fee for applicants from third countries may differ from those stated in the schedule. Please refer to the actual amount required for payment.

(5) Postal Application = Visa Fee + Visa Service Fee + Postal Service Fee. Postal service means that on the day of document collection, after receiving the visa and passport returned from the embassy, the Visa Center will process them separately and hand them over to the courier company. The courier company will then deliver them to the applicant's return address and charge the corresponding fees. The applicant does not need to visit the Visa Center for collection. Usually, applicants receive their passports within 2-3 working days after dispatch, but delays may occur in special cases. Express and urgent services refer to the visa application process at the embassy, not the postal process. Applicants requesting express or urgent processing of visa application must pay an additional express/urgent visa fee charged by the embassy and an express/urgent service fee charged by the Visa Center.
